Customs letter

Dear Sir or Madam:

A person suffering from a blood disorder can only control bleeding with a transfusion of factor concentrates.

is travelling to

. . . . . .

It would not be possible for him / her to travel without a supply of factor concentrates. He / she carries with him/her sufficient units for selfinfusion as maintenance therapy and additional amounts in the event of an emergency.

A customs official who inadvertently withholds bottles of human factor concentrate may place
